7.3.1: Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust

Bhiwandi Weavers' Education Society was founded in 1973. At that time a great necessity for education was felt by certain individuals from our community. Which was founded in 1973 is now successfully running several institutions namely Weavers English Medium School, Sakina Pre Primary School, Abdul Shakoor Primary School, Rabiya Girls High School & Jr. College, Samadiya High School & Jr. College and Senior College of Arts and Commerce. Thus BWES is catering to the educational needs of the Muslim community right from the kindergarten to the graduation level.

BWES had taken the lead to establish the third degree college in the city, second Co-education College in the town and first college of linguistic and Muslim minority college of the Bhiwandi.

Samadiya College of Arts & Commerce was established in August 2003. BWES was fortunate enough to get the permission to start the senior college from Govt. of Maharashtra and University of Mumbai in July 2003 on Permanent Non Grant Basis with the efforts of the Hon. M.L.A., Bhiwandi Mr. Abdul Rashid Tahir Momin.

In the first academic year i.e. 2003 04 there were a total of 112 students admitted to B.A. and B.Com courses at present there are 475 students enrolled for B.A. and B.Com courses.

It is renowned for its academic excellence and professional orientation. This college is situated in the heart of the city and intends to provide quality education and to equip the students with knowledge and co-curricular activities which help in moulding them into good and responsible citizens. The aim of the college is to provide educational facilities to the local students in general and weavers
